

SILENCED

Confusion at the concert of the famous rocker Tessy Tennesy!
None of the speakers on stage are working! A technical defect or is there more to it?
 Detectives, please investigate!

1. Are there any indications of sabotage?

2. Follow Tessy and his band back:
 Who have they angered?

3. Which of the angry ones is the culprit?

1. The power cables to the stage are cut! The scissors are lying nearby, under a park bench.
 2. On the way to the concert, the rockers stole a child's ice cream, trampled on a car and harassed a street musician.
 3. The saboteur is the street musician! He bought the scissors at the hardware store.
 Now he's sitting outside the cafe and is very pleased with himself.
